

Author: Joseph R. Holder

Pamphlet 64pp

Price: $5.00

Subtitled "Historical Reflections on the Absolute Predestinarian Controversy and Related Errant Doctrines". Holder shows that the Fulton Convention of Primitive Baptists in 1900 arose from the need to address confusion over Fullerism and Parkerism. He demonstrates how men like Elder James H. Oliphant saw the importance of emphasizing a distinction between the unconditional nature of eternal salvation and the conditionality and involvement of the will in Christian discipleship.
